

UiT

THE ARCTIC
UNIVERSITY
OF NORWAY

The 10th Munin Conference on Scholarly Publishing 2015

30 November–1 December
in Tromsø, Norway

Keynote speakers

Randy Schekman, awarded the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine in 2013, investigator of the Howard Hughes Medical Institute, Professor of Molecular and Cell Biology at the Univ. California, Berkeley, and Editor-in-chief of the open access journal eLife. Schekman will speak about Publishing the most important work in the life sciences.

Stuart M. Shieber, James O. Welch, Jr. and Virginia B. Welch Professor of Computer Science in the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences at Harvard, and the faculty director of the Harvard Office for Scholarly Communication. Shieber will speak about The role of the HE institutions in scholarly publishing and communication.

Sabine Hossenfelder, assistant professor for high energy physics at Nordita in Stockholm. Hossenfelder will speak about Peer review and its discontents

Peter Suber, Director of the Harvard Office for Scholarly Communication, Director of the Harvard Open Access Project, Faculty Fellow at the Berkman Center for Internet & Society, and Senior Researcher at the Scholarly Publishing and Academic Resources Coalition (SPARC). Suber will in a conversation with Caroline Sutton talk about What is OA and where is it going.

Poster presentation

Accepted posters will be presented both in plenum and in the exhibition area.

↘ REGISTER NOW ↙ at site.uit.no/muninconf

Welcome to Tromsø and to the Munin Conference.
Don't miss this opportunity to be enlightened!

Follow us: @MuninConf (TW) and TheMuninConference (FB)

The conference will be held at Auditorium 2, House 1, Teorifagsbygget

Chair: Caroline Sutton, Co-Action publishing, Munin Conference Advisory Board member

Monday 30 November

1000–1045 Registration; coffee served

1045–1100 Conference opening: Anne Husebekk, Rector at UiT The Arctic University of Norway

1100–1200 Keynote Randy Schekman, Nobel Laureate in Physiology or Medicine 2013, Professor of Molecular and Cell Biology at the University of California, Berkeley, Howard Hughes Medical Institute, and Editor-in-chief of the open access journal eLife: Publishing the most important work in the life sciences

1200–1300 Lunch

1300–1320 Margaret Louise Fotland, Department of Academic Administration, University of Oslo, and Live Håndlykken Kvale, Science Library, University of Oslo Library, Norway: The data explosion – a huge challenge and a gigantic opportunity

1320–1340 Armin Günther (presenter) and Ina Dehnhard, Leibniz Institute for Psychology Information, Trier Germany: From Publishing to Communicating Research Data

1340–1405 Paolo Budroni, managing director of e-Infrastructures Austria and Library and archive services, Vienna University, and Barbara Sánchez Solís, Coordination e-Infrastructures Austria and Library and archive services, Vienna University, Austria: Research Data Management in Austria – A manageable task for Austrian research institutions?

1405–1425 Karlheinz Pappenberger, subject librarian, University of Konstanz Library, Germany: Research Data Management at 9 Universities in Baden-Wuerttemberg, Germany. The Results from the Final Report of the bwFDM Communities Project

1425–1445 Peter Weiland (presenter) and Ina Dehnhard, Leibniz Institute for Psychology Information, Trier, Germany: PsychData – Experiences from 12 Years of Research Data Archiving

1445–1515 Coffee break

1515–1615 Keynote Sabine Hossenfelder, assistant professor for high energy physics at Nordita, Stockholm, Sweden: Peer review and its discontents

1615–1635 Susanne Mikki (presenter), Senior Academic Librarian, Marta Zygmuntowska, Senior Academic Librarian, Hemed Ali Al Ruwehy (presenter), Senior Executive Officer, and Øyvind Liland Gjesdal, Senior Executive Officer, University of Bergen Library, Norway: Scholarly profiles, user preferences and impact scores

1635–1655 Sofie Wennström, Analyst, Stockholm University Library, Stockholm, Sweden: A user-driven development of scholarly communication tools, the Stockholm University Library example

1655–1720 Howard I. Browman, Principal Research Scientist, Institute of Marine Research, Austevoll Research Station, Norway: The use and misuse of bibliometric indices in evaluating scholarly performance

- 1720–1725 Closing day 1
1900–late Conference dinner at Ølhallen

Tuesday 1 December

0830–0900 Coffee served

0900–1000 Keynote Stuart M. Shieber, James O. Welch, Jr. and Virginia B. Welch Professor of Computer Science in the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences at Harvard, and the faculty director of the Harvard Office for Scholarly Communication: The role of the HE institutions in scholarly publishing and communication

1000–1025 Brian Hole, Ubiquity Press and University College London: A revitalised university press movement: reclaiming publishing for the global research community

1025–1050 Coffee break

1050–1110 Rob Johnson, Director, Research Consulting, UK: Securing the Future of Open-Access Policies

1110–1135 Jon Øygarden Flæten, adviser, The Research Council of Norway: A Novel Approach to Article Processing Charges in Norway: Results and Experiences from the Research Council's STIM-OA Call in 2015

1135–1200 Dirk Pieper, Bielefeld University Library, Germany: INTACT – Collecting data on fee-based Open Access publishing

1200–1220 Ingrid Cutler (presenter), Advisor, Irene Eikefjord, Special Librarian, and Tormod Strømme, Special Librarian, University of Bergen Library, Norway: Changing the publishing landscape towards openness – supporting hybrid Open Access at the University of Bergen

1220–1240 Poster session

1240–1340 Lunch & poster presentations

1340–1400 Melissa Harrison, eLife and JATS4R Working Group: JATS4R – standardising the way XML content is tagged to enhance publishing workflows and reusability

1400–1425 Alexander Kohls, SCOAP3 Operations Manager, CERN, and Nina Karlstrøm, SCOAP3 National Contact Point Norway, CRISTin: Successful transition of High-Energy Physics publications into Gold OA – review of two years of SCOAP3

1425–1430 Poster award

1430–1530 Keynote on video link: Peter Suber, Director of the Harvard Office for Scholarly Communication, Director of the Harvard Open Access Project, Faculty Fellow at the Berkman Center for Internet & Society, and Senior Researcher at the Scholarly Publishing and Academic Resources Coalition (SPARC): What is OA and where is it going – in a conversation on video link with Caroline Sutton

1530–1535 End of conference

UiT

THE ARCTIC
UNIVERSITY
OF NORWAY

The 10th Munin Conference on Scholarly Publishing 2015

Keynote speakers:

Randy Schekman

Sabine Hossenfelder

Stuart M. Shieber

Peter Suber

Chair:

Caroline Sutton

Organizing committee:

Jan Erik Frantsvåg

Lars Figenschou

Aysa Ekanger

Leif Longva

Stein Høydalsvik

