Highlander Books is pleased to announce the upcoming release of:

Nagas as a Society Against Voting
and Other Essays
by Jelle J.P. Wouters

This collection of essays on Nagas society, history, society and politics is scheduled for release in Winter 2019

This collection of 11 essays... is like an 11 course dinner that one rarely, if at all, gets to partake of. Each of the eleven courses tells us something unique about the Nagas society and politics, and the author's unique style of presenting ethnographic insights provides the right kind of ambiance and mood for savoring such a lavish dinner.

Trevor B. Simplis, North Texas State University

The author's investigation is thoroughly scholarly, and his dedication to understanding the Nagas question, the ancient political struggle to take shape in the region, is praiseworthy.

Milind Indra, Naga elder and peace activist

This collection of freshly revised essays challenges major assumptions about Nagas society. It helps us move beyond 'tribal exceptionalism' and learn about the gendered nature of customary law, realisations of the future, and how territorial claims are negotiated.

William Van Schendel, University of Amsterdam

Jelle J.P. Wouters is an anthropologist and teaches at the Department of Social Sciences at Royal Thimphu College, Bhutan.
