

Connecting Open Data to Open Access Publishing

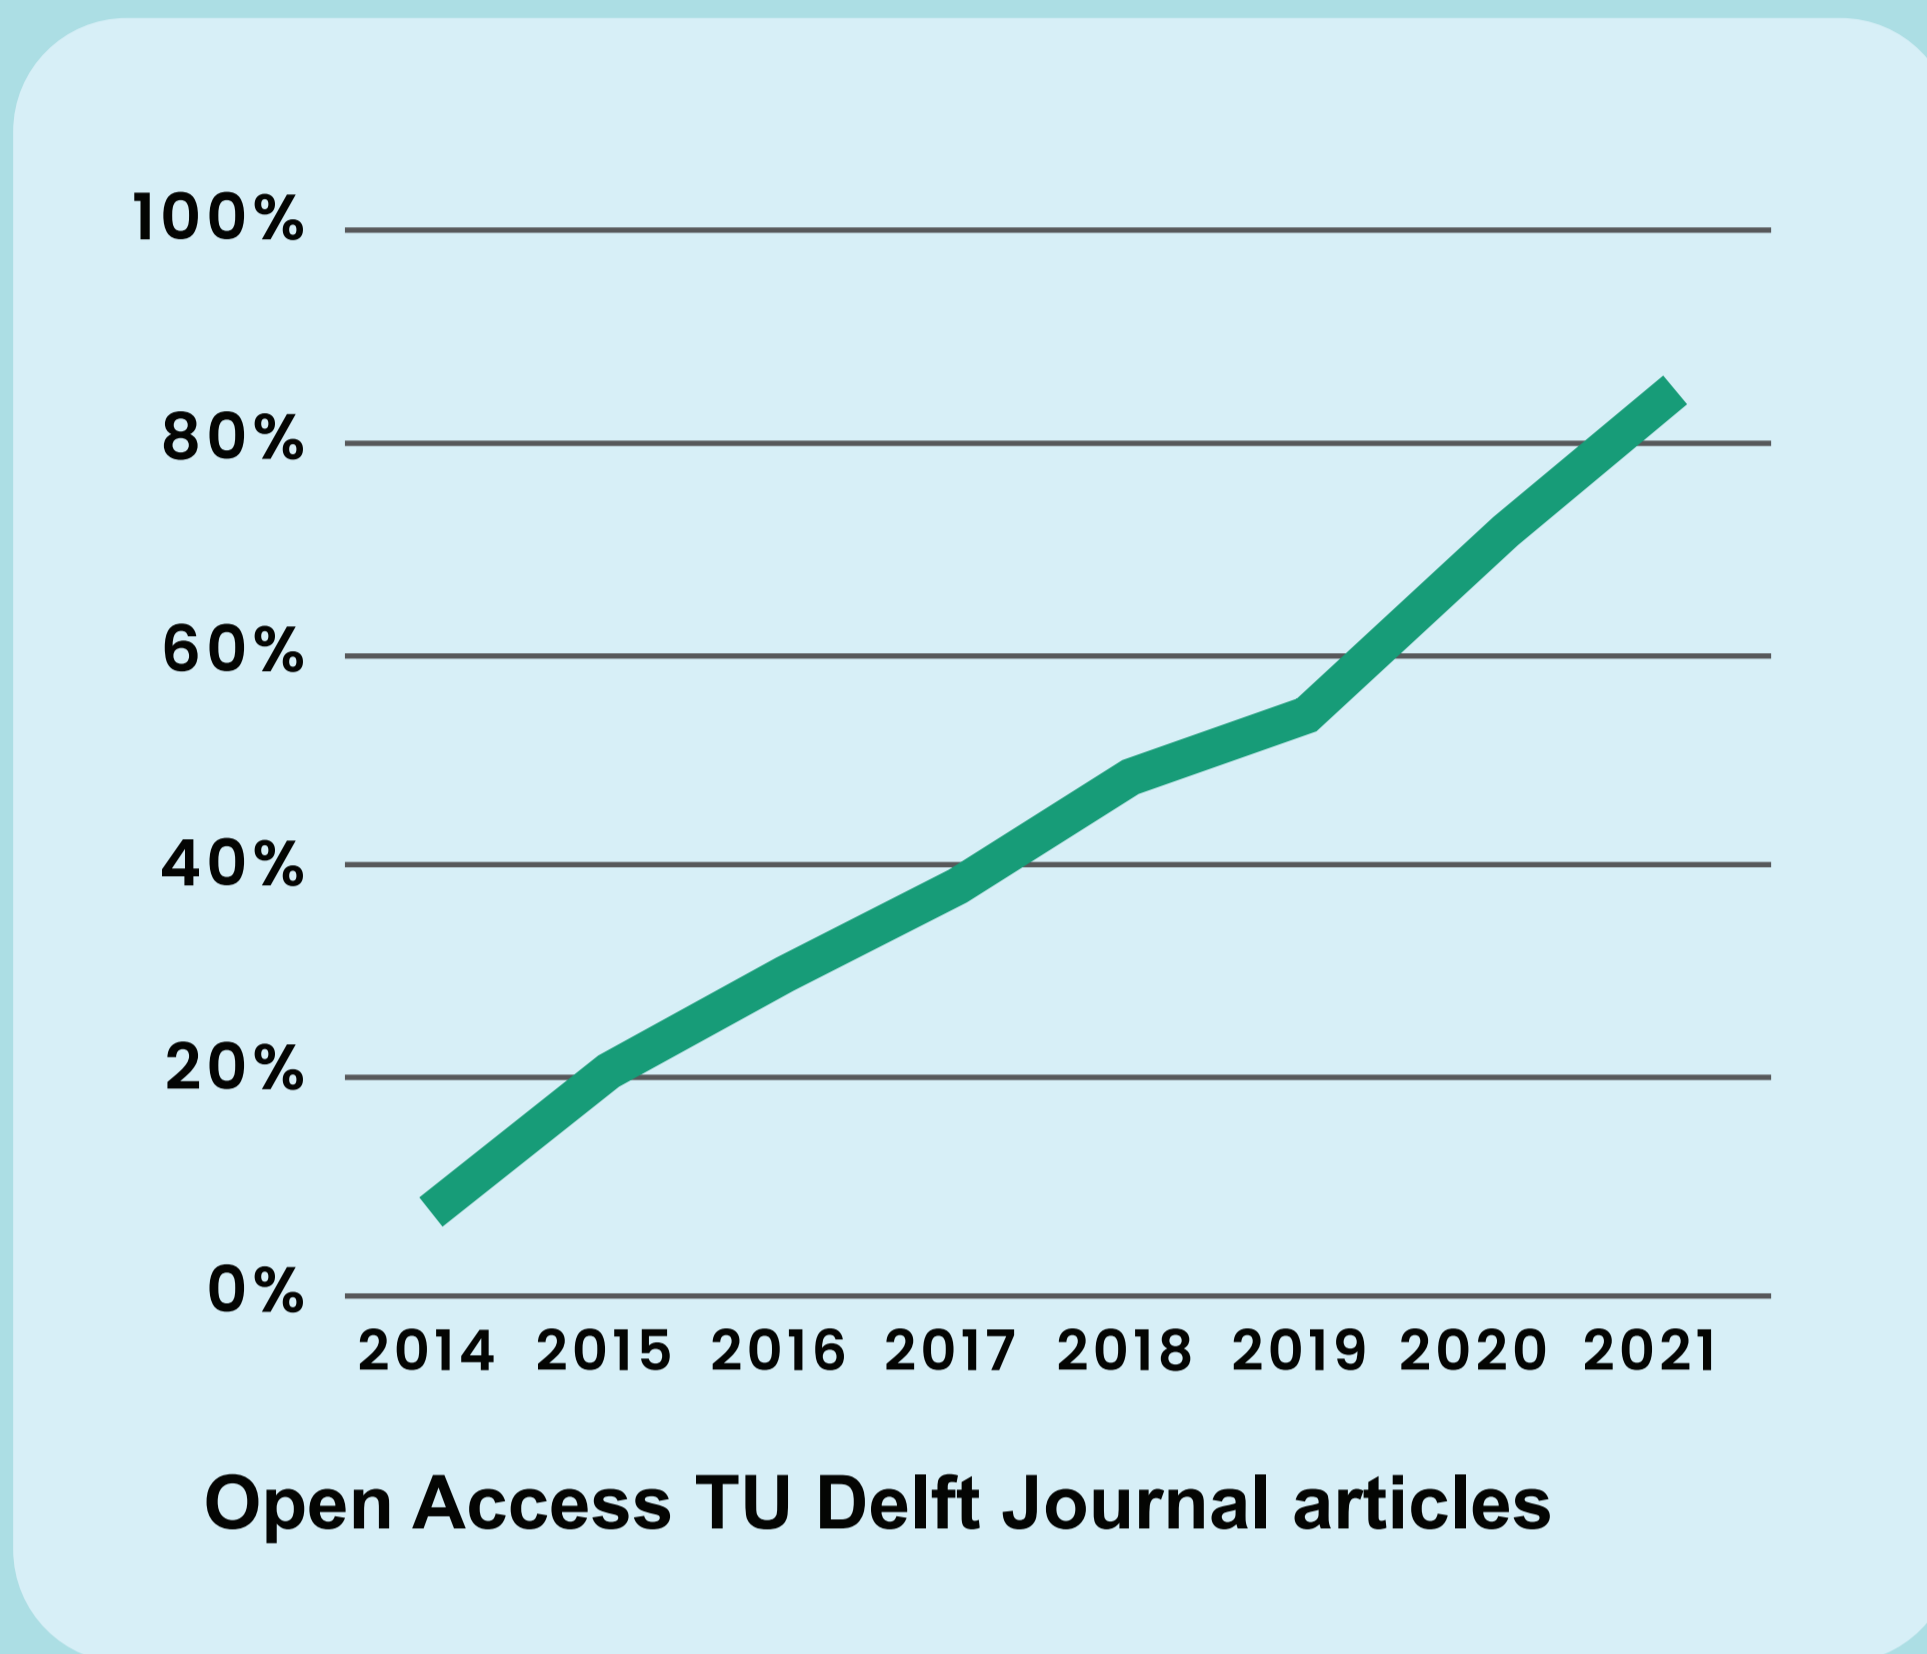

Current Situation

Open Access Publishing

85%
of TU Delft reviewed articles published Open Access in 2021

71%
of TU Delft conference papers published Open Access in 2021

400+

Open Textbooks and Open Books published by TU Delft OPEN

65k+

Publications in TU Delft Research Repository incl. 10.000 doctoral theses

20+

Special Open Access TU Delft deals with publishers

How do these publications connect with FAIR data?

How many publications refer to FAIR data?

Challenges

What We Aim to Do

Change Research Culture

Change Research Practice

Contributors

Frederique Belliard
f.belliard@tudelft.nl

Just de Leeuwe
j.deleeuwe@tudelft.nl

Yan Wang
y.wang-16@tudelft.nl

Cite this Poster

Belliard, F., de Leeuwe, J., & Wang, Y. (2022). Connecting open data to open access publishing: TU Delft library perspective. Septentrio Conference Series, (1). <https://doi.org/10.7557/5.6632>

Recommendations

Connecting Publications and FAIR Data

By having institutional policies to...

Position the Library as the main driver for awareness

Include FAIR data as part of the review process of articles

Bring this topic in education for researchers

Collaborate with stakeholders such as data stewards and external data owners

Define ownership and responsibility of the data

Visit our Website to Learn More

Poster design by E. Yane Lopes, TU Delft